DEATHS.

A telegram received by Mr. Chas. Stephens, of this city, Tuesday morning told of the death of his sister, Mrs. Lou Stephens Clark, which occurred at Pasadena, Cal., Monday afternoon. Mrs. Clark was about eighty years of age and had been in declining health for some time, owing to her advanced age. She was a native of Paris, daughter of the late Joseph Stephens, but had lived in California for a number of years. She is survived by her husband, Mr. William Clark, one son, Mr. Carl Clark, and two daughters, Mrs. Willie Smith, of London, Eng., and Mrs. Louis Muir. Two brothers, Mr. Chas. Stephens, of Paris, and Mr. Joseph Stephens, of Marietta, O., also survive.

Mrs. Anna Lydick Barlow died Tuesday morning at 7:30 o'clock at the family home near Jacksonsville. Mrs. Barlow had been ill since last February with paralysis. She was 76 years of age, and is survived by her husband, Justice J. T. Barlow, and five daughters, all of whom live in Texas. They are Mrs. Ella Winston, Mrs. Lelia Ammerman, Mrs. Mollie Hill, Mrs. Bettie Stamp and Mrs. Frankie Johnson. Mrs. Winston was the only one of the daughters at home when the mother died, she having arrived from Texas Sunday.

Mrs. Barlow is also survived by a brother, Mr. Andrew Lydick, of Cynthiana, and a sister, Mrs. H. C. Funk, of Georgetown.

The funeral took place at the residence yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. The services were conducted by Elder J. T. Sharrard. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Thomas Fessler, J. Will Smith, John Shropshire, Will Cantrill, Eugene Rucker, Allison Barlow, Oscar Carrick and Will Lydick.

THEATRICAL.

"PECK'S BAD BOY."

Every scene in "Peck's Bad Boy," which is the attraction at the Grand on Friday evening, November 17, will be familiar to the many people who will delight in this opportunity of seeing once more a play which has delighted them so many times in the past. The first act is played in the corner grocery store conducted by the old German, Schultz, who is the butt of most of the Bad Boy's good natured pranks. The second act shows a typical hotel office which the Bad Boy turns upside down in less time than it takes to tell and the third act represents a family picnic which would have been orderly, peaceful and quiet had it not been for the lively scion of the house of Peck.

The play is primarily a comedy and has been written only with the intention of making people laugh. It has, however, a tuneful musical setting supplied by the various members of the company, all of whom are clever vaudeville entertainers. Popular prices 25, 35 and 50 cents.

MATRIMONIAL.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Mr. W. H. H. Donbonan and Mrs. Ora Cook.

Season's Record Price for Weanling.

The season's record price for a weanling saddle colt was reached when J. F. Barbee, of Millersburg, sold to an eastern man the bay colt, Jubilee King, son of Bourbon King, dam Eric Queen. Sister to Eric Chief, by Harrison Chief, for $500. The colt was a winner at the Georgetown fair and is bred to become a champion as his sire was an unusually high class colt and his dam a handsome big mare and sister to the noted stallion Eric Chief. Mr. Barbee is also owner of the filly Rosa King for which an offer of $800 was refused as a suckling.

Bourbon county is far in the lead of all others when it comes to producing high class saddle colts and this fact was given prominence when the winner of the National Saddle Horse Futurity and three others inside the money were bred in this county. Mildred King the winner is said to be doing nicely and wintering well. An offer of $500 was recently refused for her. She also won something like $750 this year in the Futurity and at the other fairs where she was shown which is easily the record amount for a suckling to win in a single season.

Another Bourbon county colt that sold well was the weanling chestnut colt Wah Wah Chief by Red McDonald—Gath Wah by Bourbon Chief, that W. F. Saunders, of Millersburg, sold to an Iowa man for $300. The colt won tenth money in the Futurity.

Making Use of Street Rubbish.

At Southwark, London, and at St. Ouen, France, street rubbish is transformed into a marketable product. At Southwark all the refuse is crushed to a powder, which is sold as a manure. At St. Ouen the powder thus made, with the addition of combustible substances, is formed into a cheap fuel.
